

The Lake Colby Beach accessibility upgrade project is located wholly within the Adirondack Park at 4 Moir Rd, Village of Saranac Lake, Town of Harrietstown, Franklin County, NY. The property is publicly owned by the Village of Saranac Lake (Public Land). Attached is a location map showing the project site in relation to the Adirondack Park boundary. No private lands are involved, and the project is fully within the park's Blue Line.

